Truthful Jones Tells... us that his local Salvation Army Officer friend realized that the organization had never received a donation from the town's most successful lawyer. The person in charge of contributions called him to persuade him to contribute to the "Sallie's appeal".

"Our research shows that out of a yearly income of at least $500,000, you give not a penny to charity. Wouldn't you like to give back to the community in some way?"

The lawyer mulled this over for a moment and replied, "First, did your research also show that my mother is dying after a long illness, and has medical bills that are several times her annual income?"

Embarrassed, the Salvation Army Officer mumbled, "Um ... no."

The lawyer interrupts, "or that my brother, a disabled veteran, is blind and confined to a wheelchair?"

The Salvation Army Officer began to stammer out an apology, but was interrupted again.

"or that my sister's husband died in a traffic accident," the lawyer's voice rising in indignation, "leaving her penniless with three children?!"

The Salvation Army Officer, completely beaten, said simply, "I had no idea..."

On a roll, the lawyer cut him off once again, "So if I don't give any money to them, why should I give any to you?"

Shows that we all know where our feelings lie and some care about our family and friends more than others.

There's no need to fear the wind if your haystacks are tied down....

Another paint hint from Maleny Paint Place

How to get a good finish?

The secret to a good paint job is to use good tools. Cheap does not always mean a good economical job.

Every year, new products come on the market to help make painting more enjoyable. You'll want to select the best ones for your job.

Natural or Synthetic Brushes

Generally, paint brushes with natural bristles are meant for oil-based paints, but this is changing. Natural bristles will soak up the water and go limp in water-based paints. The newer synthetic bristles were designed for water-based paints, but can be used for anything. Densely packed bristles that taper to a chisel edge help with painting a straight edge, cutting in or tipping. Split ends or "flags" hold more paint and spread it more evenly and smoothly. Choose the right brush for your job.

Foam Brushes and Rollers

Foam brushes come in many widths, are inexpensive, and are great for small jobs or touch-ups.

Foam paint rollers work well, don't spatter the paint, and are easy to use when you want a really smooth wall. Normally they are used with "glossed" paints.

Don't try them on rough surfaces, though, as they will not hold up.

Pad Painters

Smooth pad painters offer simple and neat paint application and easy clean ups. Don't apply too much paint to the pad, as it will drip. You'll have to take it apart, clean it, dry it thoroughly, and start over. If you use ones with guide wheels keep those wheels clean.

Paint Rollers

A paint roller with a plastic core will last longer than one with a cardboard core. Select a roller "nap" (fullness of the covering) according to the texture on your walls. Use a flat, smooth roller for flat, smooth walls and a thicker, more plush roller for rough textured walls.

Drop Cloths

The best material for a drop cloth is a heavy canvas cloth. It's not as slippery as plastic and covers better than newspaper. Fold the cloth to fit any size room and tape down the corners to prevent paint from oozing over the edge. To prevent scratching, be sure to vacuum hardwood floors before you put the drop cloth down.

The "NUT" Award

It matters little what the monetary penalty is or how much education is given there are some drivers who just will not take notice of the road rules.

They are not only a danger to themselves but they are a danger to other road users who have no control over the prevailing situation, not through their actions but the actions of the inconsiderate drivers.

Each week we will bring you the contender for the weekly "NUT" award - that is the weakest part of the car's safety - "The Nut behind the wheel"...

Let us see if we can do our little bit to improve road safety around our town.

If you know the person mentioned please have a quiet word to them.

This week's award goes to:-

All of those drivers who were caught in the FIXED speed camera on the Bruce Highway at Burpengary during the Easter weekend. We all know where it is and that it is operating so there is no excuse when you get caught there.

Driller's Tales,

Interesting interlude in the Philippines, 1998

I was in Bicol, central Luzon, helping to organise a geophysical survey and check out potential drill sites, and was told that the NPA had a new commander, Ka Ajin (Ka meaning comrade), a 40-ish lady and the highest ranking in Bicol. The NPA are the New People's Army, the military wing of the Philippines Communist Party, and just one of the groups of terrorists hassling everyone throughout the Philippines, and they lived in the hills around our potential exploration site. Newspaper reports claimed that there were 6,000 NPA under arms. That afternoon a young boy had brought a note from the NPA asking for a meeting, so they had observed my arrival.

The next NPA note asked information regarding our intentions. When we replied if they would accept goods (rice, tinned sardines, cigarettes) as a tribute instead of their revolutionary tax, which was 15% (of wages, budget) etc., they said that they would have to confer with their higher-ups in Makati, Manila

Ka Ajin said, Nice People Always, their new orders were cash only, demanding P.6,000 per month ($150). There was a sign on the road to our camp saying 'thank you from mixed friends' which sounded quite cheerful, despite being a veiled warning from the NPA. Another joke is that NPA means, No Permanent Address.

I had been told that when the NPA burnt the LY36 & 44 on September 7, 1986, during a previous drilling program, the military were in a bunker 200 metres away but did not see the activity. The NPA told the crew to disappear, but could not start the burning with diesel.

Then they found the gasoline mud mixer fuel and set everything alight. Finally, one morning at 0630, with an interpreter and our security chief, I walked to the river for my meeting with the five NPA, as they wanted to know our program, and were under the impression that a mine was going into production. We sat on logs and there were three M-16s pointed at me. Ka Ajin, another high ranking NPA, and the three youths with the guns. They all relaxed somewhat when I explained that it was only the start of an exploration program, which would last for a long time. When a chicken walked across the clearing, and I asked them if that was the NPA too, they all burst into laughter, and the guns were removed. Then they thanked me for coming to meet them, and all shook hands when I left the two hour meeting.

On my way back to Manila, I stayed at a hotel which had these interesting instructions in the bathroom:

- (1) Set the heater to the position either, hot, warm or cold.
- (2) Open the faucet.
- (3) Then don't move the controller anymore to avoid electric shocked.

News from Maleny
Bowls Club

by Chairman Ian Hansen

Once again the inclement weather caused Bowls to be cancelled on both Tuesday and Thursday last week.

I've lost count of the number of times Bowls have had to be cancelled this year because of the weather. Wouldn't it have been marvellous had we had a covered, artificial green on the Precinct with a new Clubhouse shared with other sports. The weather would not have cancellation of any games and there wouldn't have been such a significant loss in income.

One can only hope that there will be just such a scenario in the not too distant future.

We still had the Sponsors' Draws on the Thursday before Easter and the lone winner present was Marianne Osborne who became only the second person to win the QLD Villages prize. This was $60 worth of IGA vouchers. The other winners would have been: John Kapetanic for IGA now worth $80 this week, Brett Scott for Maleny Paints, Cliff Deans for the Full Monte and Joyce Walsh for Beechwood Bakehouse. The lucky raffle winner was Diane Drew.

This week, hopefully even though it's raining at time of writing, there will have been the unusual Tuesday Jackpot Pairs/ Triples and Social Bowls on Friday. Sunday, the Junior Cricketers are having their Presentation Day at the Club and helpers will be needed in the kitchen and as cooks for the Bar-Be-Que.

Monday, 31st of March, is the Men's Monthly Jackpot Pairs.

Surely the weather will be kind and all three games can be played. Good Bowling All.

Some notes from Peter Slipper M.H.R.

Film Classifications

New laws have been introduced that enable the advertising of unclassified films, computer games and publications prior to them being given an official rating from the Classification Board. Previously this was allowed for only a limited number of films for cinematic release.

New technologies leading to an increase in piracy of films and computer games in particular forced producers to severely restrict any pre-release circulation of their productions, often meaning they were only receiving their official classification just prior to their public release, which meant limited opportunities for promotion.

The new laws give industry assessors the ability to recommend the likely classification of the product and allow advertising with conditions.

Sex discrimination

The Sex Discrimination Commissioner will be holding a series of forums in Queensland on 14-18 April. The "Listening Tour" is seeking input on how best to build a fair and equal society for women and men in Australia.

For further information about the Listening Tour, visit: www.human-rights.gov.au <http://www.human-rights.gov.au>

Environment funds

The Australian Government will spend $2.25b between now and 2013 to help improve the environment and help further improve land management practices.

The programme, known as "Caring for our Country" programme will deliver funds to communities through a single entity that covers several funding streams, including the National Heritage Trust and National Landcare.

A turkey never voted for an early Christmas.

Old libraries -
New services for all

The libraries of Noosa, Caloundra and Maroochy Councils are merging to deliver a one-stop Library Service that you can access from your local branch.

They aim to take the best that each has to offer and add a little extra to bring an even better library service with more benefits.

It will be a library service for the whole Sunshine Coast community, with a focus on providing more libraries and more choice.

It is expected that a new catalogue system will be up and running by the end of May 2008.
